

TAE 4

Give two examples of sentences beginning with a conditional clause and ending with a main clause, then two examples of sentences starting with a main clause and ending with a conditional clause.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

TAQ 5

Explain briefly what a copular verb is and give three short example sentences each containing a copular verb. Underline the copulas.

- _____
- _____
- 1 _____
  - 2 _____
  - 3 _____

TAE 6

Use the present progressive are going, am seeing, having, is going to write four sentences about personal arrangements or fixed plans. [E.g. Did you know I'm getting a new job?]

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

Now do the same using be going + infinitive to write about plans, especially in an informal style [e.g. I'm going to stop him doing that if it's the last thing I do.] Use get, call, keep and have.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____

TAE 7

We use imperatives for giving orders or commands, and also for making offers, suggestions, invitations, giving directions, etc.